JUNIOR FULL STACK SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

PERSONAL PROFILE

In my 10+ years as a professional musician I learned how to pick a single idea out of thin air and create both physical and digital forms of multimedia products. My vast work experience has allowed me the opportunity to work with people from all different backgrounds and personality types. I'm an effective and empathetic communicator, and I'll use my knowledge from NewForce Cohort-9 to help others bring their original app ideas and websites to life.

PROJECTS

SIDEOUT!

This social app connects the user to a larger community of handball players. Log in, create a Player Profile, create or join a New Game, and connect with other users to schedule handball games in person.

SIDEOUT! is a fun app that makes it easy for players of this niche sport to connect with each other.
